DEV strengthens its Sales Team

Jörg Sommerschuh appointed as new Sales Manager

Rosbach, November 20, 2006. DEV Systemtechnik effectively strengthens its sales management: since October this year, the new Sales Manager Jörg Sommerschuh is directly responsible for international sales of DEV systems solutions for RF signal transmission. Jörg Sommerschuh can draw on years of experience as sales expert – and is a renowned specialist for complex satellite communication systems.

With the appointment of Jörg Sommerschuh, DEV Systemtechnik in Rosbach invests in the quality of its sales management: as new Sales Manager, the experienced sales expert is responsible for the sales of DEV-devices with immediate effect. Due to 13 years professional experience, Sommerschuh has a solid knowledge base and expertise in international satellite communication.

The expert says, "DEV Systemtechnik is among Germany's top-notch developers and manufacturers of RF devices. I am proud to be part of this successful team."

Throughout his career, Jörg Sommerschuh has worked as Sales Manager for Plenexis, a subsidiary of the Stratos Global Corporation and as Sales Director for Satlynx. Prior to that, he worked as Sales Manager for Loral Skynet, an international technology company that is renowned for its satellite communication.

Sommerschuh is full of enthusiasm about his new role. "DEV guarantees highest quality", says Sommerschuh. "And that is my aspiration as well."
